RE: Mashiyat Rashid

Dear Judge Hood,

This letter is written in support of Mr. Mashiyat Rashid. He is scheduled to be sentenced in federal court. I am not aware of the crime he has been convicted of or any charges associated with it. However, I do know that Mr. Rashid is a good man who apparently has made a serious mistake and now he must pay a price for it. I have known Mashiyat Rashid since he was born. My wife and I have known his parents for almost forty (40) years. He is a very respectful young man and even though he made some bad decisions, he has a solid foundation upon which, with God's help, he can rebuild his life and again become a law abiding and productive member of our society. I believe Mr. Rashid is truly sorry for any wrongdoing and that he will pass this test which he now faces and use this experience as an opportunity to be a real asset to his community and the society at large. Any leniency that you can show in his sentencing is appreciated.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Eric R. Sabree
